About Kiran Vedantam:

Kiran Vedantam and Kiran Bapatla are husband and wife team. After a few years into their dream job at Intel Corporation as engineers, they set out with a simple goal of being able to spend more time together without compromising on their life style. They were able to replace their income and resign from their engineering jobs. They have found that real estate investing is not only easy to transact, but also can help create cash flow and profits. They are first generation immigrants from India and met each other when they came to the United States to pursue Master's degrees from Arizona State University. Following their entrepreneurial passion, they got into the real estate industry with no background or experience on the ways of the land. Kiran Vedantam has been a licensed realtor since 2005 and started his own real estate company Kirans and Associates realty in 2010. They began critically studying the real estate industry and within a short time became one of the top agents in Arizona, ranked number 113 in USA by Wall Street Journal / Real Trends in 2011. He was ranked 4th in Maricopa County in 2011 for most closings and is in top 0.5% of agents overall for sale dollar volume. Kiran Vedantam was awarded the AZ Real Estate Achievement Award 2013, was also ranked in top 150 in the country by Real Trends in 2013.

They started community outreach events since 2006 related to homeownership and real estate investments. They invited well-respected attorneys, CPAs, mortgage professionals and fellow realtors as guest speakers so that all can share the best-known methods. Their real estate radio shows in California (KLOK 1170) and Arizona (KQCK, KAZG 1440, KFNX 1100) have been well received and got them the recognition as leaders on real estate.

Kiran and Kiran Vedantam are still actively helping families at Kirans and Associates Realty. They run a team of real estate agents and are top agents in Arizona. They passionately share their vast knowledge, experience, and expertise with their clients so they too can enjoy the benefits of buying and selling real estate.
